

School Leaders Stymied in Fight for Segregation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

School segregation leaders, stymied by federal court orders in Virginia and Arkansas, appealed to individuals today for support in operating private all-white schools.

One thing is clear: Any private school system will have to be operated without any kind of state support.

Not so clear is whether the federal government will help rebuild schools such as the bomb-ravaged high school in racially troubled Clinton, Tenn.

Virginia's plan for operating private white schools with public teachers was tossed out the window Wednesday by Federal Judge John Paul in Harrisonburg. He said the practice violates the U. S. Supreme Court's integration ruling.

Paul declined to rule on NAACP request to reopen Warren County High School and two Charlottesville schools because the state law which closed them is being tested in the Virginia Supreme Court.

After hearing the court order on publicly paid teachers, Atty. John S. Battle Jr. of Charlottesville indicated he would seek money from private sources to pay teachers and thus remove them from the court's prohibition. He said the money probably could be raised by tuition charges. "This is our only chance," he said.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas said he would start a nationwide appeal for contributions to help operate private segregated schools. A federal judge has ruled in Arkansas that private classes

16 Polio Cases in State This Year

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sixteen polio cases have been reported in Arkansas this year, including a new case of paralytic type in Craighead County last week. Dr. M. Washburn of the state Health Department said the Craighead patient had not received polio inoculations.

Baptists to Talk Over Private School

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The president of Ouachita Baptist College said today the Arkadelphia school's Board of Trustees would be called into emergency session soon to consider establishment of a high school academy, at Little Rock.

"Ouachita has been studying for some time the possibility of a high school in Little Rock," said Dr. Ralph Phelps. "Recently we have had many requests from members of our denomination in Little Rock to help them with education for their children during the present situation."

Phelps said a number of churches have made informal offers of their facilities. Students of both races here have been shut out of public high schools by Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who closed the schools against racial integration. A private corporation is preparing to open segregated white schools but no definite starting date has been announced.

Last night, the board of deacons of Little Rock's First Baptist church voted to make the church's educational facilities available to Ouachita.

Contacted at Arkadelphia, Phelps said he had received no official word of the church's action. "However," he added, "I am calling a meeting of the board members within the next three or four days" to consider setting up a high school.

First Baptist Church has two buildings which could be used for educational purposes.

The Second Baptist (Church) Interim Preparatory School will open high school classes Monday for church children.

The Rev. Dale Cowling, pastor, said classes would be held from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. five days a week in the church's Educational Building until the public schools reopen.

He said the school would be set up to operate 175 days this term.

Says Louisiana Can't Oust Demo Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said today Camille Gravel, Jr. will continue as the party's Louisiana national committeeman, despite his ouster vote by state party leaders in a row over the segregation issue.

Butler said the State Central Committee had no authority to remove Gravel from the post.

"Mr. Gravel is still the Democratic national committeeman from Louisiana, and he will remain in that post until the conclusion of the 1960 Democratic National Convention unless proper grounds for his removal are presented to the Democratic National Committee," Butler said.

At a meeting in Baton Rouge Wednesday, the Democratic State Central Committee of Louisiana voted 69-30 to ouster Gravel as state national committeeman.

Gravel, a 49-year-old Alexandria lawyer, had supported the national party's civil rights platform and had expressed a personal belief that segregation is morally wrong.

The state committee elected Jos. M. Talbot, an investment and estate manager, to succeed Gravel.

Gravel said he would fight the attempted ouster by taking his case before the national committee in December.

Prescott Man Dies in Local Rest Home

Sammie H. Orrin, aged 70, of near Prescott, died Wednesday at a local rest home. He was the father of Phyllis Owen, recently elected Nevada County Judge. Survivors include three children, Kirby Orrin of Napoleonville, La., Cyril Orrin of Magnolia, Texas, and four daughters, Mrs. A. A. Palko of Prescott, Mrs. C. F. Reick of North Little Rock, Mrs. Constance of Vivian, La. and Mrs. J. A. Dowdy of Lake Charles, La. Services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at Piney Grove by the Rev. Lowell Murray. Burial will be in Piney Grove Cemetery by Corliss and Prescott.

U. S. to Press for Continuation of Cease-fire

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States will press Red China in diplomatic talks at Warsaw Friday to extend its seven-day Quemoy cease-fire.

A State Department spokesman described this today as a purpose of the Warsaw talks. The announced Red cease-fire is scheduled to end Sunday.

Press Officer Lincoln White told a State Department news conference that "we have no information" to the effect that the Reds intend to prolong the suspension of hostilities.

He was asked whether the United States is doing anything to press for an extended or permanent truce in the Formosa Strait region.

He said a cease-fire had been and continues to be the purpose of the Warsaw talks and added "of course we are pressing and have been pressing from the outset."

Asked whether this meant specifically that the United States would be exerting pressure when U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam meets with Red Chinese envoy Wang Ping-nan at Warsaw Friday, White said: "Of course we'll be pressing for a cease-fire extension tomorrow — that's our whole purpose."

Neither Gov. Orval Faubus, principal backer of the private school plan, nor Dr. T. J. Roney, president of the corporation, would speculate when classes might begin.

Faubus yesterday announced that he would send a letter, asking for funds to finance private schools, to all persons who have written or telegraphed him supporting his integration stand. He said the letters would be mailed in a few days.

Students at junior high and elementary schools finish their first six weeks of work tomorrow. Report cards are distributed at 6-week intervals in Little Rock schools.

The exodus of Little Rock students to schools in the Pulaski County District appeared near an end.

Five school in the county surrounding have admitted a total of 278 displaced students, but County Suplt. E. F. Dunn said yesterday, that no more could be accommodated unless he could find additional teachers.

Dunn already has added eight teachers to handle the extra pupils and said he would hire at least three more if he could find them.

Teachers under contract to the Little Rock school district are not available. They continue to draw pay during their enforced idleness.

Despite Dunn's pessimism on availability of teachers, the private school organization said it has plenty of teacher applications to assure opening of schools once the physical machinery is set up.

Brashear said, however, that no teacher has yet been put under contract by the private group. He said none would be officially hired until all applications are examined and checked.

Roney said money continues to come in from Arkansas and other states and a few foreign countries. He said the letter appealing for funds, which will carry his signature as well as Faubus', should not be taken as an indication that spontaneous contributions have dwindled or halted.

Roney has consistently declined to say exactly how much money has been received since the group first appealed for funds last week. He said there has not been time to make a complete accounting.

McCarty Held for Jury Action

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Joe McCarty, 39, was ordered held for Grand Jury action following a hearing yesterday before Municipal Judge M. C. Lewis Jr. on a first degree murder charge.

McCarty is charged in the Sept. 29 slaying of Johnny Hill at the home of Hill's estranged wife.

Mrs. Hill, mother of two small children, testified that she and her husband had agreed to a reconciliation several days before he was shot to death.

District MYF Rally Planned Here Oct. 11

The Hope District MYF is having its Fall Rally at the First Methodist Church at Hope Saturday, Oct. 11, at 3:30. The theme will be "Vocations" with the Rev. Johnny Haggler, conference director of youth work as principle speaker.

Of additional interest will be classes conducted by the following leaders: Mrs. B. L. Perkins and Mrs. J. T. Bowden of Hope, and Mrs. A. J. Davis and Miss Ruth Noll of Texarkana.

The meeting will begin with supper at a cost of 35c a plate. It will end at 9.

Bald Knob to Get a Small Plant

BALD KNOB, Ark. (AP) — Plans for a plant to manufacture small motors here were announced yesterday by the Bald Knob Industrial Development Corp. About 200 persons eventually will be employed by General Industries, Inc., which will occupy a building formerly used by International Shoe Co.

One Arrest, Liquor Still Is Seized

Dorsey Burns, aged 41, a resident of Lewisville R. 1, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Jack Arnett and Bob Huster and Federal agents on charges of manufacturing moonshine liquor. Officers seized a 50 gallon capacity still and 100 gallons of mash.

Six Weeks, No End in Sight at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The end of the first six-week school year approached today with about 1,000 high school pupils still looking for some place to attend classes.

W. C. Brashear, newly hired superintendent of the Little Rock Private School Corp., said yesterday that he did not know when the private schools would open.

"There's still a lot of preliminary work to be done," Brashear said.

Neither Gov. Orval Faubus, principal backer of the private school plan, nor Dr. T. J. Roney, president of the corporation, would speculate when classes might begin.

Faubus yesterday announced that he would send a letter, asking for funds to finance private schools, to all persons who have written or telegraphed him supporting his integration stand. He said the letters would be mailed in a few days.

Salvation Army Drive in Good Start

The Salvation Army fund raising campaign got off to a grand start Tuesday morning at a breakfast in the Diamond Cafe. 40 persons were present and received workers' kits after inspirational talks by Capt. Roy Marshall of El Dorado and Mr. Clarke, Garrison, Service Unit Representative of the Salvation Army.

The collectors were cheered heartily by the report given by Guy E. Basye, large gifts chairman. He reported receiving thus far $458.00 which represented about 80% of his assignments. He further reported that he had received 100% cooperation in his division. He hoped to complete his assignment by Wednesday.

Mrs. Cline Franks and Ray Turner, co-chairmen of this year's campaign, urged their workers to complete and return their kits as soon as possible.

A highlight of the meeting was the presentation of awards of appreciation to Mrs. Franks, Mr. Turner, Mr. Basye and Elmer R. Brown for their untiring efforts in behalf of the needy through the program of the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army Service Unit here in Hope is striving to reach a goal of $2,000 this year according to Jimmie Jones, chairman. One thousand dollars of the goal was reached Wednesday, Oct. 8.

THEY CALL IT "THE BEAST" — This is a diagrammatic view of the Air Force's intercontinental ballistic missile "Titan," as sketched by L. J. Herb, Aviation Week magazine artist. The "Titan" is now getting handling and checkout tests at Cape Canaveral, Fla. First firing is expected in October. The 40-by-10-foot, two-stage, 6500-mile-range missile travels at more than 12,000 m.p.h. and carries a 10,000-lb. warhead. It is designed to carry a three-ton payload of nuclear bombs from Johnston Atoll to Moscow in less than 20 minutes. In fact, Titan is so accurate, workers are dubbing it "The Beast." It is expected that it will be the main launching vehicle for the "Dyna-soar" glider, which may become America's first manned space ship. Although Titan uses many parts of the Atlas, its design is more advanced than that of the USAF's first ICBM missile. It was designed and built at the Martin Company's Denver plant.

Butler Links Governor to Fascism

HAYS, Kan. (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said yesterday that many of Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus' statements "have carried a tinge of Fascist totalitarianism."

"We completely repudiate everything Faubus has said concerning the integration issue," Butler said.

However, he denied that he had accused the Arkansas governor of abetting Communist propaganda.

Published reports quoted Butler as saying he believed Faubus was "an aider and abettor of Communist propaganda" through his stand against racial integration in public schools.

Butler spoke earlier at the University of Wichita and later talked informally with reporters and students. He said some of his statements concerning Faubus may have been misunderstood.

The Democratic Party spokesman said it was quite possible that some delegates from Old South states might walk out of the convention in 1960 but he said this "wouldn't mean Democratic defeat in the presidential election."

President Truman showed it was not necessary to carry all the solid South or even New York to win the presidency.

President Truman showed it was not necessary to carry all the solid South or even New York to win the presidency.

He said he made no statement that the entire deep South would eventually leave the party. "I don't believe it will," he added.

In a speech at a Sixth Congressional District rally at Hays, Butler said a recent statement by GOP National Chairman Meade Akin, that Faubus was "an aider and abettor of Communist propaganda," was "a gross distortion of the facts."

"Whether it be better medical care, more adequate housing for the aged, increased public assistance, social security, improved nutritional standards, or aid to the disabled, the Republican record has been a negative one."

Prison Sentences Are Reduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Prison terms of a man and a woman were reduced yesterday by Gov. Orval Faubus on recommendation of the State Penitentiary Board. The board was composed of the following members: Bernard Williams, convicted of grand larceny in Pulaski County in 1957 and sentenced to five years and a year term given George F. Garner in 1957 for burglary and grand larceny in Polk County was cut to two years.

Active parolees: Cecil Hayes, Raymond Carlton, John Barham, Joe Barham and Norvell Slacks.

2nd Class City Can Appoint Marshal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A second class city can declare the city marshal's job appointive, rather than elective, the attorney general's office ruled yesterday. The city of Stamps recently made such a declaration and the Lafayette County Elections Commission subsequently refused to accept petitions of two independent candidates for the post.

Rain Strikes Large Part of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More rain fell in sections of the Midwest today in the wake of violent storms that struck areas in Missouri, Iowa and Texas.

The country's main wet belt during the night was in the North Central states. Thunderstorms rumbled across areas from southern Wisconsin through Iowa and moved southward during the early morning hours. Damaging wind and hail storms were reported in extreme northern Illinois.

Wind gusts up to 70 m.p.h. uprooted trees and power lines along the Wisconsin-Illinois border. Hail pelted parts of Chicago as the thunderstorms swept southward. More than two inches of rain drenched Grand Rapids, Mich., in a 90-minute period.

Partly cloudy skies and temperatures near 70 degrees were forecast for the seventh and decisive game of the World Series in Milwaukee.

Heavy rain doused the Fort Worth, Tex., area Wednesday night with amounts ranging from one to six inches. Two persons drowned in flash floods which followed the downpour.

Tornadoes skipped across north-west Missouri, striking Grant City, a town of about 2,000 south of the Iowa border. Property damage stretched southwest to Parnell. A small twister struck a rural area near Newton, Iowa, damaging buildings. No injuries were reported in the storms.

Light snow fell at Cut Bank, Mont., as cooler air from Canada moved southward into the northwestern section of the country. Temperatures dropped below freezing. The colder air headed eastward and was expected to move into the Northern Plains. Showers were indicated in the northern tier of states from the Rockies to the lower Great Lakes region. Snow flurries were forecast from extreme northern Minnesota through parts of the Dakotas and into the Rockies.

Sky was generally clear in the Far West. Fair weather prevailed in most of the eastern third of the country.

IRS to Probe Mistake on Faubus' Tax

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A regional director of the Internal Revenue Service is due here today to conduct an investigation of a procedural mistake in an examination of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' personal income tax returns for 1955-56-57.

B. Frank White of Dallas was assigned by the IRS Washington office to take charge of the inquiry. Faubus claimed Tuesday that government was trying to intimidate him by assessing extra income taxes against him.

He showed a letter from the IRS Little Rock office which indicated the government planned to charge fair rental value of the mansion, salaries paid to servants and a mansion maintenance expense to Faubus' personal account.

Faubus, after revealing the tax move, announced that he had received a second letter withdrawing the first.

'59 Dodge Offers Style, Comfort, Economy

The tail fins of 1959 Dodge cars, like this Custom Royal four-door Lancer, have softer, more flaring lines. A new high-contour roof provides more headroom and allows easier entry and exit. New engines and advanced torsionbar suspension provide greater gas and tire economies.

keynoted by arched headlight "eye brows" which curve inward and downward to the front grille. New taillights — patterned after jet-tubes — and new rear end "control surfaces" on the fins provide a sleek, futuristic image.

Oct. 10 has been set as the tentative date for the new models to go on display in dealer showrooms across the country, according to M. C. Patterson, Dodge general manager. They will be on display at Nunn-Pentecost Motor Co. on Friday, Oct. 10.

News Briefs

LONDON (AP) — Three hundred teen-agers battled for 30 minutes with bicycle chains, student belts, bottles and bricks Tuesday because 14-year-old Alan Rouse had been dating pretty Linda Littman.

Linda, a 14-year-old charmer, had been going steady with a boy from Harold Fields School. Then she switched her affections to Alan, who goes to nearby Quagles Secondary.

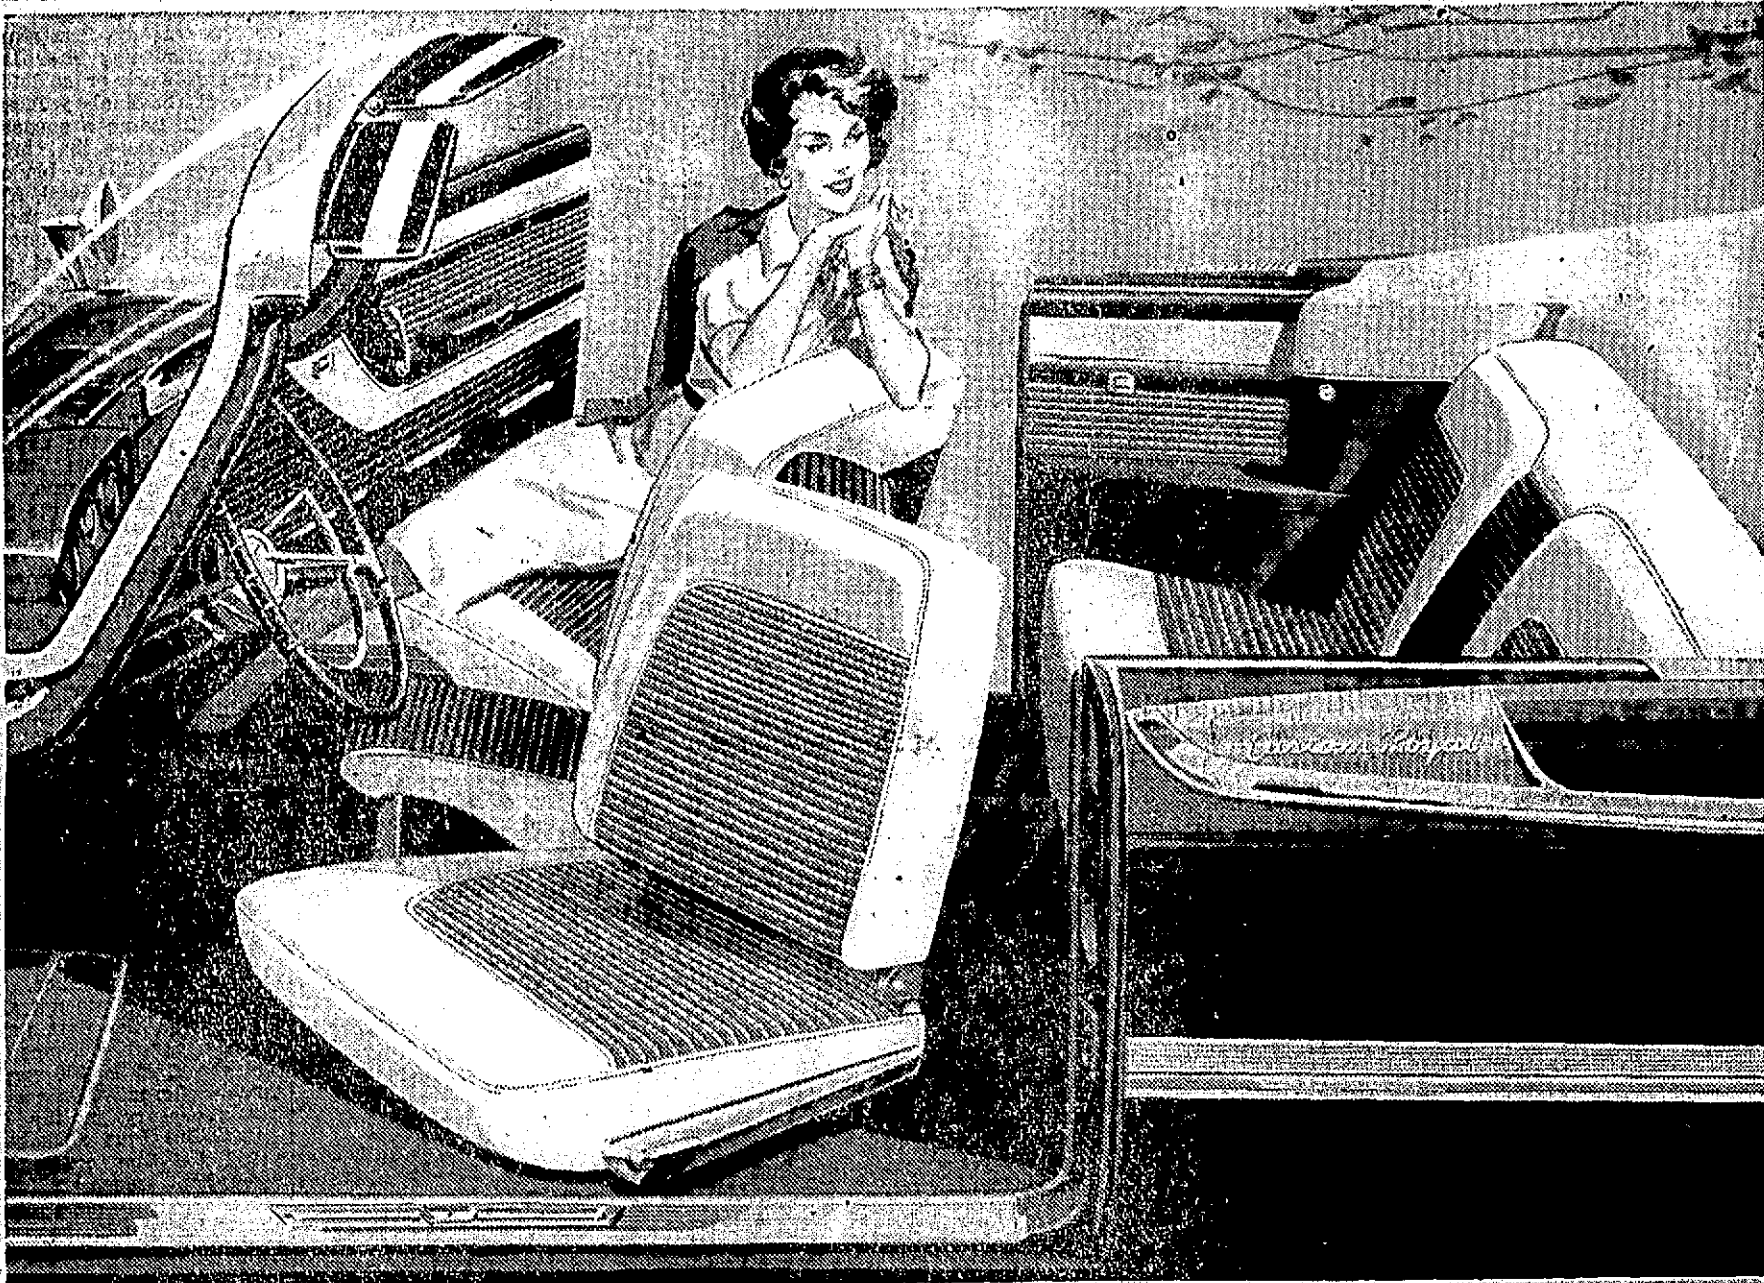

Harold Fields students felt honor-bound to revenge the slight. So 200 boys and their girl friends marched to the gates of Quagles. Then 100 Quagles boys sallied out to give battle. Forty minutes later police restored order.

NICOSIA (AP)—EOKA today denied it was responsible for killing a British woman in Famagusta last Friday. A leaflet from the Greek Cypriot underground circulated in Nicosia blamed the slaying on the anti-EOKA organization "Cromwell" and the Turkish underground. British authorities had blamed the slaying on EOKA.

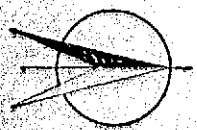

JAKARTA (AP) — Indonesia's smoldering civil war on Sumatra appeared erupting again. Reports reached here today said rebels have occupied a strategic town in the west central part of the rich island.

Sixty officers and men of Denmark and Norway were graduated in 1958 as missile experts at the U. S. Army Guided Missile School at Huntsville, Ala.

Plans were made for serving dinner to those attending the District meeting of Firemen, which will be held in Hope Oct. 21. Several games were played and the winners were Mrs. Waddle

Cunningham, Mrs. Joe Don Webb, Mrs. Jim Cobb, Mrs. Carroll Yocom and Mrs. Dorsey Huckabee. The hostess served a salad, a dessert and coffee or cold drinks to those attending.

Circle 1 WSCS of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. J. Ross Moore on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. P. H. Webb co-hostess. The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. Johnny Green. Circle leaders, who also presided over the business.

Mrs. John Vasey gave a very inspiring devotional on "Prayer." Mrs. C. V. Nunn Sr. presented two news items on local youth in Christian work. Mrs. Moore had charge of the program subject "Methodism in Red China."

A delicious dessert plate and coffee were served to 18 members present.

Mrs. George Newbern Hostess to Circle 2

Circle 2 of WSCS met in the home of Mrs. George Newbern on Monday afternoon at 3 p.m. Mrs. R. T. White, chairman, opened the meeting with prayer and presided over the business session. The week of prayer was announced for Oct. 27-31.

Mrs. Giles Foster gave a very inspiring worship, using as her theme "Christ Sermon on the Mount." Mrs. John Arnold closed with prayer.

Taking part on the program were Mrs. E. M. Rucker and Mrs. Charles Harrell, who presented work on WSCS in the Caribbean area.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served a delicious dessert plate with coffee to 16 members and one guest, Mrs. Floyd Fuller.

Luther Hollamon Host To Duplicate Bridge Club

Luther Hollamon was host to the Duplicate Bridge Club at his home on Oct. 8. Red roses were used throughout the rooms as floral decorations. Peanuts, popcorn and pink lemonade were served from a buffet overlaid with a red linen cloth and enhanced with gray candles in wrought iron holders. Other table appointments were silver.

Eight tables of players participated in the evening entertainment with these teams scoring high: 1st, Mrs. Marie Hendrix and Mrs. Henry Hawthorne; 2nd, Sydney McMath and Jerry O'Neal; 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Young Jr.; 4th, Mike Kelly and Mr. Hollamon; 5th, Bill Wray and Mrs. R. T. Wilson.

The group honored Miss Elizabeth Bridwell, who is leaving for Europe next month, with a going away shower. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts from her fellow club members. At the conclusion of the evening dessert and coffee were served.

Coming and Going

Among the out of town friends and relatives attending the funeral of Charles Clark were the following: Mrs. B. A. Taylor of Montclair, Calif.; Mrs. Doyle Bruce, Alhambra, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, Texarkana; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Partell, Shreveport, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Those from Hot Springs were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. James Shackelford, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shackelford, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Shackelford, Mrs. Viola Cass and Mrs. Ray Woodall. Friends and relatives also attended from Magnolia, Stephens, Waldo, and Bosier City, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Foster have returned home from Little Rock where Mr. Foster was the presiding officer at the 34th annual convention of the Arkansas Real Estate Assn., Oct. 6 and 7. At this meeting, he was given formal recognition to his outstanding leadership, vision and ability as president of the Assn in 1958.

Mrs. Charles Kimberly of Austin, Texas, is visiting the Don Westbrook family here.

Junior-Senior PTA Has Meeting
The Junior-Senior PTA met on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 2 with the president, Mrs. P. A. Escarrie, presiding.

Rev. Alfred DeBlack gave the invocation. The secretary, Mrs. Allen Eskine Jr., read the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs. Vernon Buchanan gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Wayne Eley, membership chairman, reported on the membership drive. The senior class won the contest Mrs. Eley urged all class representatives to contest parents who have not yet joined the P. T. A. as the desired goal has not been reached. Parent education chairman, Mrs. Harold Hendrik, announced that a study course on "Knowing Our Youth" would be held Thursday, October 9 at 2:30 p. m. at the high school.

Finance chairman, Mrs. Vernon Buchanan announced the P. T. A. dinner which is to be held on Thursday night, October 16 at the high school cafeteria. Mrs. Walter Connell is ticket chairman for the bake auction to be held in connection with the dinner.

Mrs. Escarrie announced that the next P. T. A. meeting would be held on November 4 due to the teachers meeting. She also reminded members of the fall district conference which is to be held at Harmony Grove October 16.

The senior class was winner in the room count. Tilman Wilson introduced the speaker, Harvey Snell, who gave a most informative talk on "The Challenge of Civic Legislation in the Schools." Mr. Snell urged all eligible voters to go to the polls in November and vote for referred act no. 1 of 1957 which is a cooperation action to keep the 3rd sales tax.

Another State Governor Had Tax Trouble

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval F. Faubus is not the first Arkansas governor in recent years to have his troubles with the Internal Revenue Service.

In November, 1951, then Gov. Sid McMath disclosed that he had paid the federal government $9,170 in back income taxes and interest for 1948, 1949 and 1950.

McMath first was elected governor in 1948 and was re-elected in 1950.

His salary and official expenses were not involved in the federal government's claim for back tax.

Sale of a house at Hot Springs and some other private transactions did figure.

McMath also later paid some additional state income tax, levied as a result of the federal settlement.

Faubus yesterday claimed he was being persecuted by the federal government.

McMath made no such assertion although he said he believed the government was in error.

At the time it was considered a favorite of the administration of President Harry S. Truman.

Any Cardinal Can Succeed Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The man who will succeed Pope Pius XI may be any of the cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church, or perhaps even a prelate who is not a cardinal.

The 55 cardinals will make the selection. They will gather behind locked doors at the Sistine Chapel. The new Pope must be elected by a majority of one more than half.

All the Popes have been Italian for 400 years, and most speculate in the church.

There is an old saying about

"He who enters the conclave Pope, leaves it cardinal." It means that those most talked about as likely candidates are seldom elected.

It is very possible the next Pope will be a prelate not even considered in Vatican circles as a candidate. Still, some names stand out.

Most prominently mentioned among non-Italians is Gregory Peter Cardinal Agagianian, Russian-born patriarch of Armenia, who was chosen by Pope Pius last June to succeed Samuel Cardinal Stritch as pro-prefect of the Congregation for Propagation of the Faith.

Bearded Cardinal Agagianian, 63, the Catholic Church's foremost expert on the Soviet Union, and communism. As a representative of the Eastern rites of Catholicism, his appointment might strengthen ties with the East.

Another foreigner sometimes mentioned is an Australian, Norman Thomas Cardinal Gilroy, 62, partly because of an old prophecy that the next Pope would be "shepherd and sailor." Before becoming a priest he served as a telegraph operator aboard a warship in World War I.

Prominent among the Italian possibilities is Archbishop Giovanni Battista Montini of Milan, 61, who turned down a cardinal's red hat in 1953 to remain close to Pope Pius as pro-secretary of state at the Vatican.

During his serious illness four years ago, the Pope named Msgr. Montini to head the Milan Archdiocese. His long administrative experience within the Vatican.

Another potential candidate is Giacomo Cardinal Lercaro, 66, archbishop of Bologna, who organized a "Flying Friars" in radio-equipped automobiles to help counter the threat of Communism in Italy.

The youngest is Giuseppe Cardinal Siri, 52, archbishop of Genoa, a brilliant scholar and also supporter of social reform measures. Other possibilities include: Marcello Cardinal Mimmi, 76, former Archbishop of Naples and now a member of the Roman Curia.

Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, 74, French-born dean of the College of Cardinals.

Ernesto Cardinal Ruffini, 70, Archbishop of Palermo, a noted scholar.

Crisanto Cardinal Luque, 69, Arch bishop of Bogota and Colombia's first cardinal.

Man Dies From Gunshot Wound
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Will Woodall, 78-year-old Kirby resident, died at a hospital here yesterday of a gunshot wound he received in a hunting accident, police said.

Officers said Woodall's son, John, told them his father was shot in the head while hunting near Murfreesboro. Identity of the person who fired the shot was unknown, the officers said.

TELEPHONE TALK

By Vance Smiley, Wire Chief, Hope, Ark.

Congratulations Bobcats

The Hope Bobcat football team has certainly proven that they are a scrapping outfit, and deserves the support of every resident of this town, both young and old. You, who saw them soundly beat Texarkana last Friday night, will have to admit that the coaches and team lived up to the name given them by some of the sports writers; that they are one of the best high school teams in the state.

Playing top-notch football is like furnishing good telephone service. You just never stop trying. It takes good material, good coaching, hard work and the will to win. We, at the telephone office want the coaches and team to know that we are supporting them one hundred percent.

For Husbands Only

I suspect some wives will speak a peek at this simply because it says "For Husbands Only." But just this once I'd like to have a man-to-man talk with all husbands.

About this time of year — halfway between summer vacations and Christmas — things settle down and your wife is probably doing a bit of dreaming. Maybe it's that trip you've always planned to take, or a new house, or a new car.

Dreaming's fine, but it usually takes a lot of years to make a big dream come true. However, little dreams take less time. In fact, just a minute or two.

So here's my hint for husbands — order an extension phone in color for the bedroom. I'll guarantee that it will pick up your wife's mood like a new hairdo or a new hat. Even better, it will make a hero out of you.

Just call the Telephone Business Office today. A service representative will help you pick the right color.

It's Real Family Fun

Sunday is a real family day. Many of us have our families around us, and we spend the day going to church, relaxing, chatting, just doing things together.

However, some people have members of their families living away from home — either away, or scattered on the other side of the country.

There's really no reason to leave them out of the happy Sunday get-togethers. Just pick up the telephone and make a long distance call. That way, Sunday is fun for everyone in the family.

Why not this Sunday? You'll surprise the out-of-towners, and have a lot of fun on your end of the line, too.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

School Leaders

Pupils of Clinton's bombed high school were told to resume full-scale, racially integrated classes today in a vacant grade school building.

Three dynamite blasts Sunday caused an estimated $300,000 damage to the building.

Four Anderson County School Board officials conferred with two White House aides and U. S. Education Commissioner Lawrence Dertwick on the possibility of obtaining direct federal aid in rebuilding the Clinton school.

Dertwick sidestepped the issue by saying a survey will be made to determine whether new funds can be provided under a federal aid plan.

The integration struggle was brought up Wednesday in two resolutions at the Episcopal Church's biennial general convention in Miami. One defends segregation as being within the realm of Christian beliefs. Action on the resolutions will come later.

American colleges and universities are in process of building 172 new physics buildings at a cost of more than 240 million dollars.

Cotton Queen to be Named Tonight

BLITHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Queen of the 19th annual National Cotton Picking Contest will be named here tonight.

Eighteen girls representing cities in Arkansas, Missouri and Tennessee are trying to win the title. They will be judged in bathing suits and evening gowns.

The winner, succeeding Ann Lipsey of Whitehaven, Tenn., last year's queen, will reign over the picking contest tomorrow morning and the grand cotton ball tomorrow night. She also will receive a $300 cotton wardrobe.

The contestants include Glenda McWilliams of Manila, Nancy Coward of Little Rock, Sarah Kay Burns of Caruthersville, Mo., Sara Blanche Wyatt of West Memphis, Quanita Wright of Earle, Joyce Gorham of Jonesboro, Sandra Brown of Fort Smith, Bert Chapman of Memphis, Sonja Bailey of Memphis, Marion Laverne Beckham of Osceola, Margaret Farris of Blitheville, Anita Wilks of Caruthersville, Patricia Lea Roebuck of Caruthersville, Kathleen Hobbs of Batesville, Bonnie Bunkley of Whitehaven, Tenn., Kay e-Milan of Kennett, Mo., Alice Faye Stephens of Blitheville and Judy Felts of Joiner.

Freshmen to Play SMU at Texarkana

TEXARKANA (AP) — Arkansas Talent-laden freshmen meet their first game test here tonight against Southern Methodist's Colts.

The Shoats, with half a dozen high school All-Americans in the lineup, are favored to make it two in a row over the SMU fresh.

Cash Steed White can field a starting line averaging 200 pounds per man—eight pounds higher than the line average of the Razorback varsity.

The backfield talent is such that White will choose between two Brookhaven, Miss., and Bruce Fullerton of Little Rock—for a left halfback.

WYNN SOME TRIO—It will be "grandpa knows best" on TV screens this fall as famed trouper Ed Wynn gets his own show, starring in "Shoeless, Sam Hill" in the new Ed Wynn Show series. He plays the grandpa of the two cuties seen above, Sherry Alberoni, 10, and Jacklyn O'Donnell, 17.

Chapter XXVIII

Lane and Webster were half-way down the slope, the buckboard, driven by Cerefino, rattling down behind them, when a man emerged from the bunkhouse to stare toward the road. Small, boned and sharp - featured, he was Duke Corday. All at once Corday ducked back into the bunkhouse and reappeared with a man at his heels—the thick-set, heavy-chinned Val Rudnick. They made a break for the horses, jerked cinches tight and had the broncs running as they swung astride them. They headed toward the ridge, the Quarter-Circle M outfit had been riding.

Webster said, "That proves it, John. You're right about them being with Verdugo last night."

"No more saddled horses," Lane said. "Must not be anyone left but the cook, And Verdugo."

They stopped and waited for Cerefino and the buckboard; then rode on in, Mitchell's fat Mexican cook watching them from his doorway.

Staying in the saddle, Lane said, "Your foreman told us Joaquín Verdugo shot himself."

"That is true, señor."

Lane gestured at the man on the buckboard seat. "Cerefino has come for him, with your permission."

"I am not boss, señor. I cannot say. There will be a woman to care for him, no?"

Cerefino said, "Do not worry yourself, fat one. Carolina will be with him. His wants will be supplied. The good medico will attend him, twice as often when he is half as far."

The wounded man was in a bad way and alone, now that Corday and Rudnick had ridden off. He had been bandaged around the middle, and smelled as though the bandage had been soaked in whiskey. Lane stood near the bun and tried to get him to talk. The chunky vaquero, eyes feverish, only muttered incoherently. He drew a finger across his throat. He did it three times.

Webster said, "He's trying to tell you he's going to cut your throat, John."

"He's already tried that, Ken. That's not what he means. Help me with this bedding. I thought

Best Weekend Food Buys for Housewives

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Housewives planning Sunday menus will find excellent buys in many food stores and supermarkets this week if they look for the weekend specials.

Heading the list of specially priced items are loin pork chops; sliced bacon, picnic hams, chuck and rib roast of beef, turkey and chicken.

Eggs are plentiful and moderately priced, particularly the medium and small sizes.

Many seafoods offer attractive bargains this week, notably swordfish steaks, flounder fillet and oysters.

The outstanding buy in produce is the apple. The harvesting season is in full swing in many parts of the country.

Pumpkins are another excellent buy, and they'll become even more plentiful as Halloween approaches. Bosc pears and today grapes are moderately priced.

Cranberries are still relatively high but they'll probably come down by Thanksgiving.

Best buys on the vegetable counter include carrots, snap beans, and beets, eggplant, escarole and tomatoes from local farms and gardens. Cabbage, turnips and celery are also attractively priced.

Tomatoes, while still bargain specials in some stores, are beginning to carry higher price tags, as are peas, squash and Western lettuce.

HEEL DEAL

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The softest thing about American youth today, in the opinion of Marine Corps recruit depot doctors, are their heels.

Dr. J. M. Dennis and Dr. A. C. Winfield say many young recruits develop heel fractures. "They don't get enough walking or running while they are growing up and their bones are developing," said Dr. Dennis. "They come into the service with soft feet — soft heels especially."

McKenzie told him you were having very much trouble with the cows.

Lane frowned thoughtfully. "Cole hasn't talked with Boucault then," he reflected. He moved his horse around to look at Cerefino and Webster. He told Webster, "I don't want Cole or Scharr to see Verdugo. Or even know we have him. Take the rig up the draw yonder and keep it out of sight until we leave for town. I reckon they'll take me to town, from what Rodriguez says."

"John," Webster said, "Cerefino can make it all right with Verdugo. Hadn't I better ride in with you?"

"You stay with Cerefino. If the doctor hasn't come by the time you get Verdugo to bed, send somebody to hunt him up."

Webster nodded. "You take over, Ken, and look after the steers. Be careful watering them, and keep drifting them up and down the flats according to the grass."

"All right, John."

Lane sat his saddle in the trail while Cerefino toiled the buckboard up a rise to the south-west. Webster and Rodriguez riding ahead of the grays, and he wondered with a feeling of regret if Verdugo would live through it.

Most of the vaqueros were rawhide tough, though, he told himself, and could take a lot of punishment.

Downtown Areas Are Fighting Back

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The downtown areas of the nation's cities are fighting back. They have been strangled by traffic, lost herds of customers to the suburbs and the shopping centers, and seen areas blighted and turned into slums.

Now more than 500 urban centers with a total population of 45 million have programs to fight slums and blight. Federal Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole reports. They are scattered through 41 states.

Department store sales are pulling up to last year's record level—although many report their profits depend heavily on income from their suburban branches.

The Controllers' Congress of the National Retail Merchants Assn. says its members look for better retail sales in department and specialty stores for the rest of the year with Christmas trade volume prospects especially bright.

Leonard L. Farber, president of the International Council of Shopping Centers, is far from convinced, however. He insists that the day of the downtown store is over, except in the largest cities where they will cater to apartment house dwellers.

Certainly for a time downtown areas were slipping badly. A Bureau of the Census survey of 35 downtown shopping districts showed that over six years their sales gained by 1.4 per cent, while total U.S. retail sales were going up 32 per cent.

Then some cities began sprucing up. Just two examples out of many: San Diego and Cincinnati report that planned programs of store modernization are credited with increasing sales of various stores by 10 to 30 per cent within a few months.

Downtown areas have other problems besides the flight of store customers to the suburbs. One that crops up in many cities is the migration of industry to outlying areas with a considerable loss in tax revenues. The American Society of Planning Officials says this can be halted only by an active fight on blight.

It favors forming community industrial development corporations to acquire sites and finance building in central industrial areas and the allotting to industry of sections cleared of residential slums.

And the Federal Housing Administration urges enforcement of sound housing and related codes and comprehensive community planning for future development as essential to urban renewal.

Court Forbids Huff to Hear Contest

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today forbade Circuit Judge C. Floyd Huff of Hot Springs to hear the Garland County Sheriff's election contest.

The contest involves renomination at the Democratic primary of Sheriff Leonard Ellis. Clyde E. Wilson, who ran second to Ellis, claims he actually was nominated. The Supreme Court disqualified Huff in the case. Ellis had asked Huff to take such action but the circuit judge had refused.

Any legal orders made in the case by Huff since he rejected Ellis' motion will be set aside.

An appeal judge will take over, but the Supreme Court did not specify how he would be selected. Presumably he could be appointed by Huff with approval of attorneys for both sides.

Huff was under a temporary injunction by one justice to hold up action in the case.

The matter was submitted to the entire court Monday.

Hypnosis Fails on the Weak Minded

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The ability to resist hypnosis is not a sign of a strong mind, a Little Rock physician said yesterday.

On the contrary, it's often a weak mind that rebels against hypnosis, said Dr. T. Duell Brown in a civic club talk.

Brown predicted that within a few years many Arkansas physicians and dentists will be qualified in the use of hypnosis in the relief of pain.

Arkansas Has Very Few Inventors

By GORDON BROWN
Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Invented anything lately? Not many Arkansians have. Or, if they have, they haven't obtained patents on their inventions.

Each week the U. S. Patent Office in Washington issues 1,000 to 1,200 patents and, while no records by states are kept, a check shows only one patent has gone to Arkansas in recent weeks.

That went to John B. Patterson, Little Rock, for his idea of a combination boat seat cushion and life preserver. It is a buoyant cushion which is strapped to the body of the wearer and can keep him afloat in event of a mishap.

Here's a list of some of the things for which patents were issued in the past week.

An electrically operated can opener; a spoon-like tool for eating spaghetti; grass shears; wall paper ledger and trimmer; an educational question and answer device; a device to help children learn to tell time; a shoe heel; a steam and dry iron; an artificial tree; a Christmas tree holder; a toy worm; a sandwich-making machine; scissors involving a new way of fastening the two blades together; a carrot harvester; a baby seat; a new type fence post; and a bird dog training device.

The fate of Ft. Chaffee, Ark., still appears uncertain and Rep. James Trimble (D-Ark.) is keeping an anxious eye on the situation.

A final decision on the size of the Army—which will determine the fate of several army posts, including Chaffee—rests with the Defense Department.

Trimble said he believes the Army Department favors a 900,000 man army in line with legislation enacted by Congress, but whether Secretary of Defense W. B. Forney will go along may depend on foreign developments.

While Congress passed legislation fixing the size of the Army at 900,000 men, Trimble points out that the President can fix a lower total if he chooses.

"Congress can't make him spend the money," Trimble explained.

Should the Army be cut back to 850,000, Chaffee likely would be in serious danger, Trimble said, but if it is held at 870,000 the installation might be safe.

He isn't looking for a final decision for months, possibly not until next June.

Trimble, who is recovering from a minor skin operation, hopes to clean up his accumulated work here and return to his home district the middle of October.

Some Arkansas eyebrows in Washington went up recently when it was announced that one of the speakers at the fourth coming Arkansas River Basin meeting in Little Rock is to be Capt. H. Schwartz Jr., chief of the resources and civil works division of the Budget Bureau.

Reason—the Budget Bureau has a long history of opposition to the Arkansas River development program, particularly to the navigation feature of it.

Orders Public School Teachers Not Re-Used

HARRISONBURG, Va. (AP)—Federal Judge John Paul said today makeshift private school programs in Charlottesville and Warren County must admit Negroes or else public school teachers joined by state closure of the schools.

An order to this effect will be entered effective one week from today, the judge told counsel in U. S. District Court.

Charlottesville has provided private class facilities for nearly all of the 1,700 pupils displaced by closure of Lane High School and Venable Elementary School which were ordered integrated.

Warren County expected to start Thursday on a similar private school program. Its first school was the first to be closed after Judge Paul ordered the admission of 22 Negroes for which the county provided no high school facilities.

HAD HIS OWN MATCHES

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—The man before the judge, Louis Primeaux, 45, was sentenced to 90 days in jail for theft of a carton of cigarettes. As officers conducted him to jail, he asked: "Anybody got a cigarette?"
